

Parents Evening Survey Responses – Spring 2026

I was given a clear overview of my child's progress:	97%
I feel that I know how to support my child's learning:	97%
Overall, my experience of Parents Evening was: (scale: 1 = very poor; 5 = excellent)	Average Score: 4.7
Example comments:	"Thorough and helpful" "I am very happy, thank you" "My child is thriving" "The teacher and TA clearly care a lot about each child and how to help them in ways that suits them as individuals" "I felt that my child's teacher had a very good understanding of my child's needs and his progress with study" "I am very happy with child's progress this year and think that the teacher and TAs are amazing. Thank you for your support." "My child's class teacher seems to be a very dedicated and capable of supporting and guiding learning in their classroom to a very high standard. They know the students well, are easy to approach and appears passionate and willing to support students whenever necessary."